

Congratulations on undertaking this Module in Palliative Care. The fact is that with training and experience you can deliver effective Palliative care and make a significant difference, and most often a highly appreciated and long remembered difference, to the lives of your patients, their families and friends.

All the best. The GPTT Team.